INDUCTION DAY

On June 25, 2026, we welcomed 1,194 young men and women to the U.S. Naval Academy as the incoming Class of 2030. This Induction Day, known as “I-Day”, marked the beginning of Plebe Summer, the military indoctrination and training period that helps new Midshipmen Candidates develop morally, mentally, and physically, which serves as the foundation to military life. I-Day 2026 was a momentous occasion that honored the tradition of the Academy, in addition to the young men, women, and their families, as they committed to beginning the journey of navigating their future as our next generation of leaders.
