CHAPTER 1 - PRE-INDUCTION DAY BERTHING

100. GENERAL GUIDANCE

1. Pre-Induction Day (I-Day) berthing will be required for approximately 280-300 active duty (NAPS and Direct Accession) Midshipmen Candidates.
2. No civilian Midshipmen Candidates will be berthed in Bancroft Hall prior to I-Day minus one. Midshipmen Candidates requesting berthing during this time will be told to make outside arrangements with hotels in the area and may be assisted by the Plebe Summer Regimental Duty Officer (PS RDO)/Officer of the Watch (OW). The Plebe Summer Officer in Charge (PS OIC) will review cases of extreme financial hardship.
3. Direct all questions to the I-Day Coordinator.

101. I-DAY MINUS THREE AND TWO

1. Marine Corps Midshipmen Candidates reporting directly from the Fleet and Marine Corps Midshipmen Candidates reporting from the Naval Academy Preparatory School (NAPS) must report to the Naval Academy on I-Day minus three. Navy Midshipmen Candidates reporting directly from the Fleet and Navy Candidates reporting from NAPS must report on I-Day minus two. Midshipmen Candidates coming directly from the Fleet, (Direct Accession (DA)), that arrive prior to I-Day minus three will be berthed in Naval Academy Summer Program (NASP) spaces until I-Day minus 3.

a. NAPS and DA Midshipmen Candidates will report to the Main Office where the Midshipman in Charge of Main Office (MCMO) or Midshipmen Officer of the Watch (MOOW) will direct them to wait in the Rotunda. When a small group of Midshipmen Candidates are assembled, the MCMO/MOOW will call the PS RDO to escort the Midshipmen Candidates to the Plebe Summer Regiment Duty Office.

b. The Fleet Coordinator from the Naval Academy and a representative from NAPS located in the PS Regiment Office will muster the reporting Midshipmen Candidates. Once all the prescribed times on the Midshipman Candidates' orders have expired, the roster will be turned over to the I-Day Coordinator. Each Midshipman will be issued The Fleet Coordinator from the Naval Academy and a representative from NAPS located in the PS Regiment Office will muster the reporting Midshipmen Candidates. Once all the prescribed times on the Midshipman Candidates' orders have expired, the roster will be turned over to the I-Day Coordinator. Each Midshipman Candidate will be issued one access pass to Bancroft Hall, one "Important Information" sheet, and will be briefed on meal hours, general rules, regulations, liberty expiration, the correct door for access (Bancroft Hall Rotunda), and ID card holder requirements.

c. The PS RDO will assign a watch stander to escort Midshipmen Candidates to their assigned rooms. All NAPS and DA candidates will be berthed in one common area prior to I-Day minus one. The watchstander will direct Midshipmen Candidates to their assigned rooms and issue them one set of linens. Tango Company will be responsible for taking TAPS and mustering Midshipmen Candidates prior to I-Day minus one. Each candidate will be issued a set of linens, which contains sheets and towels.

d. Normal town liberty is authorized for NAPS/DA Midshipmen Candidates on I-Day minus three and two from after their last military obligation until 2200. Midshipmen Candidates must be in their assigned rooms by 2200 for accountability muster. Uniform for liberty is appropriate civilian attire.

102. I-DAY MINUS ONE

1. NAPS/DA Midshipmen Candidates

a. At 0630 on I-Day minus one, all NAPS and DA Midshipmen Candidates will turn in their linen, clean up their rooms, form up in their company areas in PE Gear and proceed to Alumni Hall for induction processing. Detailers will escort Midshipmen Candidates to breakfast at 0545. They must bring all forms, documents, and medications (prescription and over-the-counter drugs) with them. Their personal bags will be transferred to Company area by First Class Midshipmen assigned to detail.

b. After processing and scheduled briefs on I-Day minus one, NAPS and DA Midshipmen Candidates will return to their assigned company area. Company Commanders will assign a duty section to maintain accountability for the Midshipmen Candidates.

c. NAPS and DA Midshipmen Candidates will be in their bunks no later than 2200.

2. Civilian Midshipmen Candidates

a. Civilian Midshipmen Candidates scheduled to report on I-Day may be berthed in Bancroft Hall the evening of I-Day minus one.

b. Procedures will be per paragraph 101.1 except for the following: Normal town liberty will only be authorized for those Midshipmen Candidates scheduled to report on I-Day, to expire at 2200, I-Day minus one. All Midshipmen Candidates must be in their assigned rooms by 2200, I-Day minus one for accountability muster. Breakfast will be provided for Midshipmen Candidates in King Hall beginning at 0500 on I-Day. Company Commanders will coordinate getting the Midshipmen candidates to breakfast, prior to their report time to Alumni Hall. Midshipmen candidates should NOT be brought over to Alumni Hall earlier than the time assigned on their permit to report letter provided to them by admissions.

103. IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR MIDSHIPMEN CANDIDATES REPORTING EARLY

1. After you have received your access pass and have moved into your room, you will be allowed to go into the town of Annapolis. The Academy will be serving a limited amount of meals for civilian Midshipmen Candidates (NAPS/DA Midshipmen Candidates will eat in King Hall after 0600, I-Day minus one) who choose not to eat in town. Midshipmen Candidates are encouraged to go into town and eat the night before their respective Induction Day. Exit the gate (Gate 1) nearest Halsey Field House, turn left and walk past the stoplight. This is the beginning of downtown Annapolis where there are a variety of restaurants from which to choose.

2. If you leave Bancroft Hall, you must exit and enter through the Rotunda doors. Take your Access Pass (Exhibit 1.1) and a photo ID with you. You will not be allowed in without it. If you need to contact Bancroft Hall for any reason, call Main Office at (410)293-5001/2.
3. When members of the opposite sex are in the same room, the door must be kept at 90 degrees.
4. You are accountable for the linens that are issued to you. Ensure that they are returned and that you have been checked off the list.
5. Closed-toed shoes MUST be worn in King Hall.
6. Dress appropriately when in Bancroft Hall. Regulation PE Gear is authorized.
7. At 2200 (10:00 P.M.), on I-Day minus three, two, and one, ALL Midshipmen Candidates must be in their assigned rooms for accountability muster. It is very important that you behave professionally and return on time. Starting your Navy career on the wrong foot is not a good idea!
8. You will notice several upper-class Midshipmen living in the same area of Bancroft Hall as you are. These Midshipmen are part of the Plebe Detail and will be your leaders over the next several weeks. Treat them politely and with respect; they will gladly answer any questions that you may have.
9. NAPS and DA Midshipman Candidates. Breakfast on I-Day minus one for NAPS and DA Midshipmen Candidates will be at 0545. Detailers will escort Midshipmen Candidates to breakfast at 0545. Before breakfast, turn in your linen and pick-up all of your gear in your room. Immediately following breakfast on I-Day minus one, all NAPS and DA Midshipmen Candidates will stand by in Regulation PE Gear to proceed to Alumni Hall for induction processing with any important documents (orders) and any medication you might have with you (prescription and over-the-counter drugs). Turn in your personal bags to the designated detailer; they will transfer them to your Company area.
10. Civilian Midshipman Candidates. Breakfast for all civilian Midshipmen Candidates will begin at 0500 on I-Day. A detailer will escort civilian Midshipmen Candidates on I-Day to breakfast. Before breakfast, turn in your linen and pick-up all of your gear in your room. Midshipmen Candidates will be escorted to Alumni Hall for induction processing on I-Day at the time assigned to them on their permit to report form. Midshipmen Candidates should bring any important documents and any medication that you might have with you (prescription and over-the-counter drugs). Turn your personal bags to the designated detailer for storage in Company area.

CHAPTER 2 - INDUCTION DAY PROCEDURES, SCHEDULE, AND PERSONNEL ASSIGNMENTS

200. GENERAL GUIDANCE

The following procedures, schedules, and personnel assignments are to be used on I-Day and I-Day minus one for the processing of the incoming Plebe Class. I-Day minus one processes Navy and Marine Corps enlisted Midshipmen Candidates (including NAPS). I-Day processes civilian Midshipmen Candidates and completes the processing of military Midshipmen Candidates.

201. DUTIES

1. Induction Day Coordinator

- a. Coordinate check-in for Midshipmen Candidates.
- b. Arrange berthing and messing accommodations for Midshipmen Candidates.
- c. Coordinate with the senior barber to provide Barber Services in Alumni Hall for I-Day minus one and I-Day processing.
- d. Coordinate Parents Briefing in Alumni Hall on I-Day with Superintendent's Staff.
- e. Coordinate with Midshipmen Food Services Officer to provide the following:
  - (1) Evening meal for approximately 200 Midshipmen Candidates on I-Day minus two.
  - (2) Breakfast and evening meal for approximately 300 on I-Day minus one.
  - (3) Breakfast for approximately 400 on I-Day.
  - (4) Cold lunch on a continuous basis from 1000 to 1530 on I-Day.
  - (5) Provide approximately 100 box lunches to Alumni Hall at 1400 for delayed Midshipmen Candidates and Plebe Summer detailers.
  - (6) Provide donuts and juice for approximately 200 to Alumni Hall at 0630 for Blood Draw Station on I-Day minus one.
  - (7) Provide donuts and juice for approximately 1000 to Alumni Hall at 0530 for Blood Draw Station on I-Day.
- f. Coordinate logistic support for all I-Day stations.
- g. Coordinate with appropriate departments on manning of stations for I-Day and I-Day minus one.
- h. Provide for inter-station communications on I-Day and I-Day minus one. Train operators in proper use of communication equipment.

- i. Establish a Central Control Station (CCS) in Alumni Hall to track movement of Midshipmen Candidates through processing.
- j. Assign personnel to I-Day and I-Day minus one stations.
- k. Coordinate transportation for civilian Midshipmen Candidates from BWI to USNA on I-Day minus one.
- l. Assign a four-officer rotation of TAD ENS/2LTs to maintain order in T-Court during I-Day. Parents/guests are not permitted to move seats, save seats, or camp out in T-Court any earlier than 1600 on I-Day.

2. Drill Master, Fourth Class Regiment. Coordinate Oath of Office and international student Swearing-In Ceremony, Personal Swearing-In Ceremony, Evening Meal Formation and March into King Hall. Additionally, obtain flags to represent the countries of all of the foreign exchange Midshipmen Candidates and provide guide-ons to all Plebe Summer Companies for march into King Hall.

3. Regimental Administrative Officer

a. Maintain liaison with Officer-in-Charge, USNA Store, regarding box issue. Provide storage rooms in each company area. OIC USNA Store will provide each member of the incoming class with an initial box issue on I-Day minus one and I-Day and will place Box Issues #1 and #2 in designated storage rooms. Company Officers and Senior Enlisted Leaders are responsible for box issue distribution.

b. Promulgate watchbills for Main Office and Regimental Office. Regimental Duty Office should be manned no later than 0800, I-Day minus five. The Fourth Class Regiment will assume the Main Office watch at 0700 on I-Day plus two.

c. Distribute the following publications to each Plebe Summer Company area for detailers in the quantities required:

(1) Plebe Summer Standard Operating Procedures (PS/SOP).

(2) Master Summer Training Schedule.

4. Station Officers-in-Charge

a. Be prepared to begin processing at Midshipmen Candidate arrival times.

b. Report to the Central Control Station (I-Day Coordinator) in Alumni Hall when station is manned and ready.

c. In case of fire or emergency evacuation, all station officers-in-charge will be accountable for the Midshipmen Candidates currently being processed at their station. Proceed to the nearest exit of Alumni Hall and take muster on Worden Field. Report accountability to the I-Day Coordinator.

d. Supervise station clean-up after processing the last Midshipmen Candidate. No personnel or stations will be secured except by the Induction Day Coordinator.

e. The same numbers of personnel have been assigned for I-Day and I-Day minus one. Management of personnel is the responsibility of the station Officer-In-Charge. Personnel who are not needed should be sent to the Central Control Station in Alumni Hall for further tasking.

f. T-Court Station OIC will report to I-Day Central Control Station when manned and ready, and hourly afterward.

5. Assigned Officers and Midshipmen. Report to assigned locations by 0645 on I-Day minus one to commence Induction Day of NAPS and prior enlisted Midshipmen Candidates. Report to assigned locations by 0545 on I-Day to commence Induction Day of civilian Midshipmen Candidates. Personnel may only be secured by the Induction Day Coordinator.

6. Plebe Summer Company Commanders

a. Ensure Midshipmen Candidates receive breakfast prior to their designated induction processing day.

b. Ensure Midshipmen Candidates are escorted to Alumni Hall. NAPS and DA Midshipmen Candidates on I-Day minus one will report immediately following breakfast. Civilian Midshipmen candidates will report at their designated report time in their permit to report.

c. Ensure proper coordination and inventory of Midshipmen Candidates personal belongings.

d. Develop room assignments for Midshipmen and be prepared to follow on I-Day minus one.
