

Final Project Proposal

This should include an abstract outlining the objective for your final project. It should include the mandatory 1 new interface, and a list of features that you plan to build. The project must be formidable, yet doable, and the abstract should highlight these attributes.