Senator Braun’s office invites any Hoosier students that may be interested in attending a United States service academy to join us for an information Academy Day event in Indianapolis!

★ Learn about the application process and what it takes to attend a service academy.
★ Hear directly from representatives of each of the academies about why you should consider pursuing your education at the academies.
★ Speak with congressional staff about the nomination process.

★ Representatives of each academy will be in attendance!

★ United States Military Academy at West Point
★ United States Naval Academy
★ United States Air Force Academy
★ United States Merchant Marine Academy
★ United States Coast Guard Academy
