How to setup your PC with Altera

1. Download the Max+ Plus II Software at:

https://www.altera.com/support/software/download/altera_design/mp2_student/dnl-student.jsp

2. Obtain a License:
   a. Go to you’re the DOS Command Prompt and enter: vol
   b. Write down your volume serial number for your computer.
   c. Go to http://altera.com
   d. Click on Licensing.
   e. Click on MAX+PLUS II software for students & universities.
   f. Click on version 10.2 MAX+PLUS II Student Edition software.
   g. Click on continue.
   h. Enter your volume serial number from “b” above.
   i. Enter all of the required information.
   j. Once you get the e-mail from Altera with the license.dat file install it on your computer in the Altera directory.
   k. Look at the readme.txt file in the Altera software for instructions on how to install the license on your computer.
   l. Go to Options.
   m. Go to License Setup.
   n. Direct it to the license.dat file you installed in your Altera directory.
   o. You should be able to use the Altera software on your PC now.