Ninth Company was the Color Company for the fall 2016 semester. Ninth Company amassed more points through intense competition in academic performance, sports, professional competence, and extracurricular activities than any other company.

Midshipman Kevin J. Saxton, USN, of Southville, Michigan was commander of the fall Color Company.

Lieutenant Nicholas M. Pulido, USN, is the Ninth Company Commander and Gunnery Sergeant Jaime Lerma, USMC, is the Senior Enlisted Leader.

In addition to Midshipmen Saxton, first class midshipmen of this year’s fall Color Company who will graduate on Friday are:

Nneamaka Chinyere Adirika, Onitsha, Anamah State, Nigeria
Joshua Wesley Antol, Tabuco Canyon, California
Jose Juan Carlos Arroyo, South Bronx, New York
Madeline Jane Blou, The Woodlands, Texas
Garrett Samuel Bradley, Springfield, Missouri
Charles Alexis Crans, Camden, Maine
Andre Ethan Esquivel, Coral, Colorado
Christopher Robert Fennell, Milford, New Jersey

The Forrestal Award, a silver bowl donated by the late Mr. Charles P. McCormick, will be presented this year to the commander of this year's Color Company, Ninth Company, Midshipman Kevin James Saxton, USN, of Beverly Hills, Michigan.

The U.S. Naval Academy’s Mission
"To develop midshipmen morally, mentally, and physically and to imbue them with the highest ideals of duty, honor, and loyalty in order to graduate leaders who are dedicated to a career of naval service and have potential for future development in mind and character to assume the highest responsibilities of command, citizenship, and government."

U.S. Naval Academy Graduate Attributes
We accomplish our mission by graduating midshipmen who are warriors ready to meet the demands of a country at war or at peace. Our graduates are:

- Selfless leaders who value diversity and create an ethical command culture through their example of personal integrity and moral courage.
- Mentally resilient and physically fit officers who inspire their teams to accomplish the most challenging missions and are prepared to lead in combat.
- Technically and academically proficient professionals with a commitment to continual learning.
- Critical thinkers and creative decision makers with a bias for action.
- Effective communicators.
- Adaptable individuals who understand and appreciate global and cross-cultural dynamics.
- Role models dedicated to the profession of arms, the traditions and values of the naval service, and the constitutional foundation of the United States.

Todays’ parade honors the members of the Color Companies, who, by their overall excellence, won first place in the intra-Brigade competition. Both Midshipmen Commanders of this year’s Color Company will receive awards.

The Stewart Wight Hannah Memorial Trophy is a silver bowl engraved with Nineteenth Company and the name of its commander, Midshipman Jake Martin, USN, of Beverly Hills, Michigan. The bowl will be displayed in Bancroft Hall during the upcoming academic year.
