

Midn 1/C Carter B. Burn was the 2018 recipient of the Class of 1979 Trident Scholar Prize, awarded to the best Trident project of the year. His Trident project was entitled “Human Aided Reinforcement Learning in Complex Environments” and he was mentored by Professor Frederick Crabbe of the USNA Computer Science Department and Dr. Rebecca Hwa of the University of Pittsburgh. Midn Burn was presented the award at the 2018 Prizes and Awards Ceremony on May 24, 2018 by Academic Dean and Provost Andrew Phillips and LCDR Sean T. Cate, USN (ret.), President of the Class of 1979.

