

Senior Mentor: Major Campbell

Maj Campbell currently serves as the Marine Detachment Operations Officer; having previously served as an instructor for NL110, Preparing to Lead and USMC Practicum. She is also the Women's Tennis Officer Representative and Gettysburg Leadership Encounter (GLE) SME and staff member.

Maj Campbell was born in Cleveland, Ohio and graduated from Rocky River High School. She attended the Naval Academy and earned a Bachelor of Science in Aerospace Engineering with a concentration in Astronautical Engineering upon graduation in 2009. As a newly commissioned Second Lieutenant, Maj Campbell completed the Basic Officer's Course at The Basic School in 2010. She went on to Naval Flight Training in Pensacola, Florida after finishing Introductory Flight Screening (IFS) in Manassas, VA.

Maj Campbell earned her 'Wings of Gold' in 2012 and reported to Marine Light Attack Helicopter Training Squadron 303 (HMLAT-303) in Camp Pendleton, CA to fly the AH-1W Super Cobra. Maj Campbell was then assigned to Marine Light Attack Helicopter Squadron 469 (HMLA-469). Maj Campbell deployed with Detachment-A to Okinawa, Japan in support of the Unit Deployment Program (UDP). She was part of the first HMLA to deploy in this role in over ten years. She conducted operations in South Korea, mainland Japan, and the Philippines.

After serving in several billets within HMLA-469 and MAG-39, Maj Campbell reported to the United States Naval Academy in 2017 and served as Leadership Instructor. She has continued her education through Expeditionary Warfare School, Lean Six Sigma Green Belt Continuous Process Improvement Course, and Command and Staff College. Maj Campbell's personal awards include the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal with a gold star in lieu of second award, the Korean Defense Service Medal and the Sea Service Deployment Ribbon.

Maj Campbell is married to Maj Ross Campbell of Richland, MI and has two sons, Ethan and Noah.
